VOL. VII. RICHMOND, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, JUNE 12, 1909. NO. 20.

SPRINGTIME.

Lo! already a fern new born
Curls in the hedgerow his inlaid [illegible]
And the primrose hourly edges aside
The lofty driftage of wintertide;
For in the vale, where the woods are still
Stands a delicate daffodil;
Dusting brooks in the prime of the year
Murmur merrily April's here,
With gentle rains and westerly vanes,
But [illegible] and lusty chains.

[illegible] meadow and sunlit sky
The soaring plover is circling high;
Sudden and loud through larch and fir
Rings the laugh of the woodpecker;
And the wagtail flirts his plumage pied
In [illegible] by the waterside;
[illegible] that late were dumb
Will, in a marble a time will come
[illegible] of leaves and pillage of [illegible]
And [illegible] a twitter in last year's [illegible]

[illegible] ways
[illegible] days
[illegible] morn of noon,
[illegible] the meadow green;
[illegible] sorry, or glad
[illegible] and old
[illegible] youth of the year
[illegible] April's here.
[illegible] and gone,

CALIFORNIA PRESS ASSOCIATION 21ST ANNUAL EXCURSION YOSEMITE VALLEY.

The following official report of the committee on resolutions of the California Press Association has been adopted and ordered published.

The 21st annual excursion of the California Press Association was made to the Yosemite Valley, May 14th to 21st, 1909, inclusive, and, briefly stated, was one of the most successful and enjoyable of the many outings of our organization.

The party, including editors and their wives, to the number of 85, left the Ferry building in San Francisco [illegible] morning, May 14th, [illegible] After cordial greetings to both old and new members the party was at once [illegible] and when the members [illegible] stepped aboard the train at Oakland the [illegible] our popular, painstaking and efficient president, Fred W. Richardson, that he was only too willing to turn the reins over to him. This was a wise precaution on the conductor's part, as nothing short of open rebellion could stop a gathering of state editors bent on a good time.

To editors from other sections of the state the trip from San Francisco to Merced was a revelation in many ways; the well-tilled lands, the abundant supply of water and the marvelous enterprise so apparent in the development of the cities and towns, which mark the line of the Southern Pacific Co. between these two points, formed an important topic of conversation, and the unanimous verdict was reached that the true development and growth of this wonderful central section of the golden [illegible] as the present season.

There is such a vast amount of snow in the mountains that the [illegible] will have a heavy flow of water until the winter season [illegible] Prest-dent Richardson that there would be no absentees at the roll call in 1910, and all will be fellow wheel-

[illegible] Leaving Merced the [illegible] Portal, a distance of [illegible] the route lies along [illegible] ly picturesque. Merced [illegible] gorgeous scenery [illegible] hardly be excelled. [illegible] Columbia [illegible] winding, steep [illegible] rapid flowing [illegible] equaled.

WARNING!

No, gentle reader, this man is not not insane; he is only a real estate broker, and shows how he will act when they start to pave Macdonald avenue, [if they ever do.] It will resemble an Onetah Tribe war dance, when others also catch the same spirit from the germ. The Cherokee and Oneata degree teams are the drawing cards, being almost a [illegible] each. Each has been complimented throughout California. Fully five hundred Red Men will visit from the other tribes. Look out, pale faces the Red Men are after you.

BOXING BREVITIES.

Frank J. Davis, in a signed article to the Terminal, criticises the contests in the prize fight at San Pablo June 30. Davis notes that in the preliminaries Johnny Carroll vs. Young Silva did not finish the first round before it was stopped by Carroll's brother. "Carroll," says Davis, "was too young and over powered on weight. Silva was too much for Carroll." "In the second go," Davis continued, "Al Mejia refused to box Johnnie Smith on account of the weight. Smith was too heavy for Al Mejia, so M. Moitozia," said Davis, "agreed to have young Turner to box Al Mejia. Young Turner of Los Angeles is Al Mejia's brother."

Davis said that they boxed four rounds and that according to law M. Moitozer should have a doctor to examine the boxers, and said there was no doctor present.

Young Turner trained three men, Carroll, Mejia and Purtell. Davis in his statement said further, "Purtell took an unmerciful beating for four rounds from Purtell. The sheriff stopped the fight. Young Turner was not treated right and was handed a lot of red tape by the club manager of San Pablo."

Moitozer to also make a statement.

THE DRUIDS' PICNIC.

Sunday, July 4, will be a gala day for East Richmond Park. This is the event of the celebration of Fourth of July, America's natal day, by the United Ancient Order of Druids, under the auspices of Point Richmond Grove No. 74 and Richmond Circle No. 75.

The committee of arrangements are Mrs. Mattern, Mrs. Guch, Messrs. Bagel, Hansen and Schreiber. The personnel of this committee is an indication of the success of this affair from start to finish. This will be made a great event for Richmond, for every one it is talked, "Druids, Druids, Druids." "Are you going to the Druids' picnic?" they say. "Yes," is the answer.

Because the Druids are entertainers and they are growing more popular as is shown from the increasing memberships in the bay counties and cities. There are Druids everywhere. "The woods are full of 'em."

This park that is E. Richmond Park, presents the prettiest landscape of the surrounding country of any other park in Contra Costa County, and is the pride of Richmond. It can be reached from Richmond transfer point and the county line, for a car fare. Flowing out of the ground in the park is an immense volume of cool spring water. East Richmond Park this year looks like a mecca for the picnic seekers, although our city has other parks that are beautiful and grand.

Richmond and Oakland people are of a social turn, they look for picnics away from their homes near the sea, so I love E. Richmond Park near the foot of Nevin Hill, with a beautiful background of mountains and hills. It is for these special attractions that the committee has decided to make this the banner celebration. Here will be awarded beautiful prizes [illegible] which will be seen in window [illegible] There will be games and [illegible] [illegible] of-war, foot races, [illegible] races, three legged [illegible] [illegible] the shot and all kinds [illegible] of every description.

From the word received by the committee from other places there will be a large crowd at East Richmond Park to hear the oratorical [illegible] on the Fourth. The [illegible] admission only 25 cents. [illegible] be charged.

Merry-Go-Round

"The merry go round takes money out of town," remarked a weather beaten sun-kissed individual this week, but the kicker did not think that the Davis merry go round people pay a big rental for the ground, pay the city $3.50 daily for license, pay a drayman to haul the paraphernalia from and back to the depot, buy gallons of gasoline every day, pay for printing, go to the Grand, board four to five men, give free rides, all for Richmond and "Merry" gets what is left. The Davis merry go round management do not sell peanuts, pop corn, candies, toy balloons, circus lemonade, soft drinks nor will they try to steal the affections of another man's wife.

All merry-go rounds of O. F. Davis & Son are popular, moral and are conducted on correct business principles.

GINAL DEFECTIVE

Worms

"Cascarets are certainly fine. I gave a friend one when the doctor was treating him for cancer of the stomach. The next morning he passed four pieces of a tape worm. He then got a box and in three days he passed a tape-worm 45 feet long. It was Mr. Matt Freck, of Millersburg, Dauphin Co., Pa. I am quite a worker for Cascarets. I use them myself and find them beneficial for most any disease caused by impure blood." Chas. E. Coulson, Lewiston, Pa. (Mifflin Co.)
